GUJARAT

Workers of political parties should be dharma bhiru, says Paatil

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
RAJKOT, OCTOBER 6

BJP STATE PRESIDENT C R Paatil said on Friday that it is imperative for workers of political parties to be "dharma bhiru" (scrupulous or god-fearing) so that they don't indulge in immoral acts and strictly stay on the path of serving the people. Paatil said so while congratulating BJP MP Mohan Kundariya for organising a Ram Katha recital by popular kathakar Moraridas Hariyani alias Morari Bapu, in Morbi.

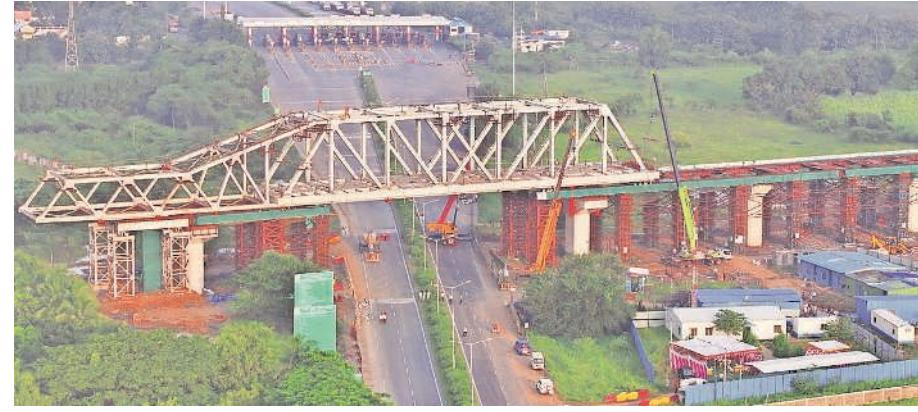

Addressing the gathering at Nani Vavdi village on the outskirts of Morbi town, Paatil said: "The dharma bhiru, which is there in the society, should also be there in political workers. Therefore, when a worker belonging to any party participates in such kathas, one has to conclude that he is dharma bhiru."

"Dharma bhiru worker of any party would think that he would pay if he goes on the path of niti (immorality), he would pay a price and if he walks the path of niti (morality), he would be rewarded. Walking the path of niti means thinking nothing else but only of service while rendering service. Therefore, it is said that it is imperative that a (political party) worker is dharma bhiru," he added.

"I firmly believe that our leaders, by remaining constantly busy in organising such kathas and making efforts... reflect their noble intentions," said Paatil, adding that Kundariya had requested him to come to Morbi and participate in the katha even after the BJP president had reminded the MP that Morai Babu had organised a similar katha in Navsari recently. Navsari is represented by Paatil in the Lok Sabha. Urging Morari Bapu to continue organising kathas, Paatil said he has come all the way to Morbi with a request. "...In his (Morai Bapu) katha, he gives the message of religion, he urges people to be principled and stay away from aniti (unscrupulousness) and tries to rid the society of addictions and bad social practices and he succeeds in doing so. Therefore, I request him to keep this yagna (of doing kathas) continuously."

The nine-day katha, which is a recital of Ramcharit Manas, had begun on September 30 and will culminate on October 8.

Surat gets first steel bridge for Mumbai-Ahmedabad bullet train

The steel bridge is located near Kamrej Toll Plaza Express

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
SURAT, OCTOBER 6

SURATHAS got its first steel bridge for the Mumbai-Ahmedabad High-Speed Rail Corridor, popularly called the bullet train, National High Speed Rail Corporation Limited (NHSRCL) officials said on Friday. Twenty-eight such steel bridges are part of the NHSRCL plan for the corridor. The bullet train will travel at a speed of 320 km per hour.

The steel bridge, which is 70 metres in length and over 12 metres in height, is located near Kamrej Toll Plaza on National Highway 53 in the city. Around 70,000 metric tons of steel is expected to be used for manufacturing 28 steel bridges, as per rough estimates. Of the 28 steel bridges, 17 are in Gujarat and 11 in Maharashtra, officials said.

Steel bridges, the NHSRCL said in a statement, are suited for highways, expressways, and railway lines. "Unlike pre-stressed concrete bridges spanning 40 to 45 meters, which are suitable for most sections, including river bridges, India has expertise in fabricating steel bridges for heavy haul and semi-high-speed trains which run between 100 and 160 kmph. And, this is for the first time that a steel bridge - set to support a Shinkansen bullet train running at a speed of 320 km per hour - was fabricated and successfully launched with precision," it underlined.

The steel structure was transported from a workshop in Uttar Pradesh's Hapur district to Surat through trailers, covering a distance of 1,200 km.

After the structure had arrived in the city, officials said, the assembling work began. With "massive care and expertise", the bridge assembly was "pulled to its intended span through a specially-designed pulling arrangement", as per officials.

As per NHSRCL spokesperson Sushma Gaur, there are seven mountain tunnels that fall on the Mumbai-Ahmedabad route out of which one is Zaroli village in Umbergaon taluka of Valsad district, while the remaining six are at Palghar in Maharashtra.

Man arrested in Surat for rape of woman when she was minor

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
SURAT, OCTOBER 6

A 28-YEAR-old man was arrested by the Surat Police on Friday on charges of rape after a woman he allegedly had a relationship with when she was a minor, lodged a police complaint alleging that he had abandoned her and their daughter in his native village in Uttar Pradesh and established relations with another woman.

The woman is a Dalit migrant from Maharashtra's Dhule district. Now 22 years old, the woman is a mother of a two-year-old girl and stays with her mother and two younger siblings in Surat.

The man, an autorickshaw driver, has been booked under sections 376(2)(N) (rape committed repeatedly on same woman), 376(2)(J) (commits rape, on a woman incapable of giving consent), 376(2)(H) (commits rape on a woman knowing her to be pregnant), 323 (voluntarily causing hurt), 504 (intentional insult to provoke breach of peace) and 506(2) (criminal intimidation) of the Indian Penal Code as well as under Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act and the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe (Prevention of Atrocity) Act.

In her complaint filed at Pandesara police station on Thursday, the woman claimed that she came in contact with the man around seven years ago, when he used to take her to the powerloom factory where she worked and drop her back home. During this time, they entered into a relationship.

The woman further alleged that in April 2018, the man raped her and took videos and photographs of the act. He then threatened to make them public and to harm her family members if she did not continue the relationship.

She added in the complaint that she eloped with the man to Delhi in 2019 and started staying as a couple in a rented room. She gave birth to their daughter in January 2021.

After spending some time in Delhi, the man took her to his native place in UP, where he stayed with her for a few months, the woman alleged, adding that following this, he had an affair with another woman and she decided to return to Surat.

Pandesara police Inspector N K Kamalya said, "On the basis of victim's statements, we have registered an offence and arrested the accused. We will record his statement."

PETA praises ban on glue traps for catching rodents in state

Gandhinagar: Weeks after the manufacture, sale and use of glue traps for catching rodents was banned by Gujarat State Animal Welfare Board (GSAWB), PETA on Friday lauded the move. The glue trap "inflicts unnecessary pain and suffering to the rodents" and is against the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, 1960, GSAWB had said in its September 5 circular.

PETA, in a statement, said: "...PETA India requested that the state take immediate steps to implement the AWBI prohibition of cruel and illegal glue traps. Gujarat is the latest of 22 states and union territories to issue directions against these vile sticky traps..."

"PETA India applauds the Gujarat government for taking this step to spare countless animals a hideously slow and painful death and for prohibiting these torture devices," PETA India Advocacy Officer Farhat UI Ain said in the statement.
